EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Peter Manzo on 6/20/06.
3. The application has been amended as follows:

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The changes made to the claims overcome the closest prior art of record, USPN 6285661, because the "data stream splitter" 38 in Zhu et al is not "generated", as required by line 5 of claim 7; nor does the splitter manager "fork(s) a copy of itself", as required by line 10 of claim 9.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Steven Blount whose telephone number is 571 - 272 - 3071. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9:00 - 5:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Ms. Doris To, can be reached at 571-272-7629. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.

Listing of Claims:

1. (Canceled)
 2. (Currently amended) The method of claim ~~[[1]]~~ 1, wherein output from the application data stream is shared by the device and the other devices using a data stream splitter.
 3. (Original) The method of claim 2, wherein the data stream splitter is dynamically constructed to provide shared access to the application data stream.
 4. (Canceled)
 5. (Previously presented) The method of claim 2, wherein output received by the data stream splitter from the application data stream is sent to the pseudo-terminal and data received by the pseudo-terminal from the device is sent to the data stream splitter.
 6. (Previously presented) The method of claim 2, wherein receiving input to the application data stream includes:
 - cycling through entries in a data stream splitter table to identify entries associated with the data stream splitter; and
 - cyclically providing the device and the other devices access to the application data stream based on the cycling through the entries in the data stream splitter table.
 7. (Currently amended) ~~[[The]]~~ A method of ~~claim 1~~ communicating between a plurality of devices, further comprising:
 - establishing a pseudo-terminal for each of the plurality of devices, wherein the pseudo-terminal facilitates communication between each of the plurality of devices and an application data stream;
 - generating a data stream splitter to handle access to the application data stream if the application data stream is not already being handled by another data stream splitter; ~~[[and]]~~
 - adding an entry to a data stream splitter table for ~~[[the]]~~ a device within the plurality of devices and the data stream splitter;
 - receiving, from the device, input to the application data stream;

receiving an output from the application data stream based on the received input and input from other devices within the plurality of devices; and providing the output to the device and the other devices at substantially a same time, wherein only the output from the application data stream is shared by the device and the other devices.

8. (Currently amended) The method of claim [[1]] 7, wherein the receiving input to an application data stream, receiving output from an application data stream, and the providing steps are performed by a data stream splitter manager.

9. (Previously presented) A method of communicating between a plurality of devices, comprising: receiving, from a device within the plurality of devices, input to an application data stream; receiving an output from the application data stream based on the received input and input from other devices within the plurality of devices; and

providing the output to the device and the other devices at substantially a same time, wherein only the output from the application data stream is shared by the device and the other devices;

wherein the receiving input to an application data stream, receiving output from an application data stream, and the providing steps are performed by a data stream splitter manager; and wherein, when the data stream splitter manager receives a request for access to the application data stream from the device, the data stream splitter manager forks a copy of itself to handle the access to the application data stream for that device.

10. (Original) The method of claim 8, wherein the data stream splitter manager is transparent to a user of the device.

11. (Original) The method of claim 8, wherein the data stream splitter manager includes a graphical user interface.

12. (Currently amended) The method of claim [[1]] 7, further comprising storing data from the data stream in a buffer, wherein when the device is first provided access to the data stream, the contents of the buffer are streamed to the device.

13-49. (Canceled)
